That on July 28, 2013 at 2227 hours, Webster Police received a call reporting a woman was in labor. Sergeant Joseph Brooks and Officer Bruce Hamm, along with Paramedics from Webster Emergency Medical Services, were dispatched to assist the caller.

Sergeant Brooks and Officer Hamm arrived prior to the paramedics, and found a mother fully dilated and crowning. With nature taking its course, Sergeant Brooks and Officer Hamm assisted the mother in delivering a healthy baby girl.

Both Officers exhibited great professionalism and calmness through this ordeal. Your training and experience without a doubt made a difference and helped to bring a healthy newborn into this world.

Sergeant Brooks and Officer Hamm, you are indeed a credit to yourself and this department. Please accept this letter as a small measure of our appreciation and know that your actions have not gone unnoticed.

Respectfully,

Lieutenant Michael Shaw
