Re: Press Release

Date: November 19, 2006

On November 18, 2006, at approximately 0010 hours, members of the Webster Police Department responded to a past assault at 1 Church Court. Upon arrival, it was discovered that the victim had been assaulted by several males in front of Gilbert's market a short while before. The assailants then allegedly chased the victim back to his residence on Church Court. Gilbert's Market was closed at the time of the assault. The assailants were described as Hispanic, and driving a green car. The victim did go to Hubbard Regional Hospital via Webster EMS for minor injuries sustained in the assault. Police are asking anyone with any information to contact Officer Michael Yurkevicious at 508-943-1212, or michael.yurkevicious@websterpolice.com. Tips can also be left anonymously via internet or phone.
