RE: Egging incident on Rt. 16 (Douglas Rd.) Webster

On 01/07/07 at approximately 8:30 pm, Officers from the Webster Police Department responded to Douglas Rd. (Rt.16) in the Town of Webster to take a report of vehicles being egged in the area.

The responding officers were advised by the Webster Police Dispatch Center that several reports of the incident had been made by passers-by. Several reports indicated that their vehicles were struck and/or damaged as they drove past a wooded area on Rt.16.

Upon the arrival of Officers in the area, Officers discovered the roadway to be littered with spent egg shells. Officers discovered five (5) subjects in the woods directly adjacent to the area. The subjects were lying in the brush in an attempt to hide from the officers.

The subjects were transported to the Webster Police Station and were identified as Sean Keegan, 17, Kevin Palmer, 17, Christopher Smith, 17, Augustin Ba, 17, and a juvenile female age 16. All of the individuals have been charged with Throwing or Dropping Objects onto a Public Way pursuant to M.G.L. C. 265 S. 35. Officers Joseph Brooks, Joshua Collins, Gordon Wentworth, and Sgt. Michaela Kelley conducted the investigation.
