Re: Arrest in attempted robbery at HI LO Carwash

On January 10, 2007, Sergeant William J. Keefe, Sergeant Michael D. Shaw, and Detective Hoover placed into custody Louis Rock III (DOB 5/30/73, 14 Cutler Street Webster), for attempting to rob the attendant at the HI LO gas station/carwash located at 80 Main Street in Webster

Rock attempted to get change from the attendant, and in the process attempted to wrestle the money away from him. In the process, the attendant did receive minor injuries, but was able to fight off Rock with the help of several teen aged bystanders

In addition to admitting to the attempted robbery, Rock also admitted to scamming several area businesses out of money by giving them fake rolls of quarters in exchange for real money. The rolls contained various objects that appeared to be quarters, but actually were items such as sockets and fuses. Anyone that believes they may have been a victim to this should contact Sergeant Keefe at the Webster Police Department, 508-943-1212.

Rock was charged with the following charges:

- Assault and Battery,
- Attempting to commit a crime, to wit unarmed robbery
- Assault with the intent to rob

Rock is being held at the Webster Police Department on $5040 cash bail.
