PRESS RELEASE

May 8, 2006

On Saturday May 6, 2006, members of the Webster Police Department executed a search warrant at 40 Prospect Street, apartment #5. Officer Daniel DiFusco, Detective James Hoover, and Sergeant Michael Shaw had been conducting an investigation into drug sales stemming from that apartment.

As a result of the search warrant, Cassandra Denham (DOB 8/15/71) and Ramon Negrón (DOB 9/21/70) were arrested and charged with illegal possession of a Class E substance. Police found a wide variety of prescription pills belonging to neither Denham nor Negrón.

Social Workers from the Department of Social services removed three children living at the apartment, while these activities were allegedly occurring.

Patricia Denham, (DOB 3/28/46, 6 Boyden Street Webster), was arrested for disorderly conduct while at the Webster Police Department upon learning she would not be allowed to take custody of the three children. She became verbally abusive towards officers, and was punching various objects inside the station.

Negrón has pending charges in Dudley District Court based on an investigation by the Webster Police Department last summer, including Possession of heroin with the intent to distribute, and trafficking heroin.

Assisting in the execution of the search warrant was Sergeants Rodney Budrow, Michaela Kelley, and Officers Michael Reardon, James Young Sr., and Brian Barnes.
