Press Release

On Sunday July 1, 2012 the Webster Police Department responded to the AT&T store on East Main Street in Webster for a reported armed robbery. Upon their arrival officers were told by the store manager, Angel Dejesus, that two males robbed him at gunpoint and hit him in the head with the gun knocking him out. When Mr. Dejesus regained consciousness he found that the suspects had taken all the high end electronics as well as some cash. Mr. Dejesus was taken to the hospital where he was treated for the injury to the side of his face.

While conducting their investigation into this robbery, detectives determined that the facts provided by Mr. Dejesus did not coincide with the evidence they had. After interviewing all the witnesses' detectives determined Mr. Dejesus had fabricated the story about being robbed. During their investigation detectives discovered that Mr. Dejesus had conspired with another unknown individual to steal approximately $22,000.00 from the store.

On Wednesday July 11, 2012 detectives again interviewed Mr. Dejesus and he confessed to planning the theft, and fabricating the robbery story. Detectives charged Angel M. Dejesus, 278 Oxford Street, Providence RI, DOB 06/09/83, with one count of Larceny by Embezzlement, and one count of Filing a False Police Report.
